Contoural CEO Mark Diamond to Present at LegalTech New York

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. — January 25, 2008— Mark Diamond, President and CEO of Contoural will present at the LegalTech® New York 2008 conference in New York City on February 7th. Mr. Diamond will be part of a panel presentation entitled: “Expire, Retain, or Preserve? Striking a Balance Between Retention Policies and Legal Hold.” Contoural is a leading independent provider of business and technology consulting services.

“It can be difficult for organizations to find a balance for preserving documents and deleting documents,” explains Diamond, “On one hand, companies need to preserve document and records in the event of litigation, for compliance and to meet business needs. However, you don’t want to save everything forever. The challenge is how do you achieve balance between these two?” This panel discussion will be presented at 10:30 am during the LegalTech® New York 2008 conference, held in New York City from February 5th through February 7th. “This is an important topic that many organizations are struggling with,” commented Diamond.
